The Apples of

The faculty and staff of Stoughton High School are the reason our school is able to function so well. With dedication and love for their job, teachers ensure a healthy learning environment for students. Their positive attitudes and sensible perspectives set up an exemplary influence for everyone to follow. Administration, cafeteria workers, custodial staff, guidance counselors, and teachers unite the community at our school. Students owe every member of the faculty and staff a massive 'thank you' for their constant support and encouragement to be the best we can be.

Dear Class of 2014:

Congratulations on the completion of your long journey through elementary, middle and high school, culminating in your graduation this June from SHS. It has been a journey in which you have grown and changed in more ways than can be counted. All of us in the Stoughton Public Schools wish you the very best of everything as you embark on the next stage of your lives beyond school, and perhaps beyond Stoughton.

The end of high school, while a major and significant accomplishment, is only the beginning of the life long learning that will continue, for some of you for another seven or eight decades, maybe longer. Many of you will have multiple professions. Technology will change in ways we cannot even foresee now. One of the most important things you can leave with is a love for learning and an appreciation for the fact that you have only begun to understand the world and the unlimited roles that you will be able to play in it. You are a terrific group of people, and I feel confident that the world will be in good hands as you leave us here and take your new places in it.

We wish you the very best of luck in all you do!

Sincerely,
Marguerite C. Rizzi, Ed.D.
Superintendent of Schools

Dear Class of 2014:

Congratulations on your graduation from Stoughton High School. This is a milestone in your life. Take a moment to relish in your accomplishments and achievements. You have made valuable contributions to the Stoughton High School community along your way. I hope that your experience at SHS has been a memorable one.

We will miss the Class of 2014. You are truly a great group of young men and women. Thank you for your spirit and your participation in the classroom, athletics, performing arts, and extracurricular activities. Many of you have also dedicated your personal time to improving the greater community. We are proud of you, and your future looks bright.

On behalf of the Stoughton High School faculty and staff, I wish you success and happiness in all your future endeavors.

Sincerely,
Ms. Juliette Miller

Underclassmen Survey

What senior bad habits drive you crazy?

"When they jump in front of you in the hallway and yell in your face."

~Riley Bagley

What would you do if you found $100 dollars on the floor?

"I would turn it in to the office."

~ Nick Quattrucci

If you were the principal, what would you change about SHS?

"Keep more bathrooms open."

~Kristen Jolly

What is your biggest pet peeve about upper-classmen?

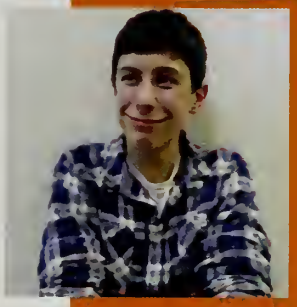
"They always call us freshmen."

~Davis McGrath

What is your most embarrassing experience in high school so far?

"Getting caught throwing things at lunch."

~Tyrone Benoit



What has been the highlight of your year?

"Sitting with Kelly and Amy every day at lunch."

~Ben Litwack

What is your best excuse for being late to class?

"My dog ate my legs."

~Ryan Sullivan

What are you most excited to do when you become a senior?

"Dress up as Harry Potter for Senior Week!!"

~Emily Quattrucii

While senior year is about reflecting on your four years of high school, underclassmen years are about making memories. Each year presents a student with new opportunities to make more friends, get more involved, and make it the best year ever.

Although high school can sometimes create stress and pressure, take the time to get involved in clubs and attend sporting and social events. Take advantage of everything high school has to offer you because before you know it, the years are flying by.

Each student makes up Stoughton High School's structure and Stoughton would not be the same without the unique personalities that fill our school halls. It's these very personalties that make Stoughton our home.

"Home was not the place where you were born but the place you created yourself, where you did not need to explain, where you finally became what you were." ~Dermot Bolger

The Home Team

Athletics are a major element of Stoughton High School. Throughout fall, winter and spring, student-athletes spend countless hours practicing on and off the field. For these students, sports are about more than just winning; these teams become families. Together, they display outstanding sportsmanship and a genuine love for the sport.

Stoughton High School teams demonstrate respect and unity while representing their hometown. Sports teach athletes how to work with others in order to accomplish a common goal. They learn discipline and dedication, skills they will carry with them even after they leave home.

Life as a Knight

No matter where we go in life, Stoughton will always be our "Home Sweet Home". From walking into the doors of Stoughton High School as a freshman to receiving our diploma as a senior, each student experiences a moment here that he or she will never forget. Whether it was designing a spirit wall, becoming a super fan at a sports game, representing Stoughton at a state-wide club event, or simply finding friends that become family, we all have the memory of Stoughton ingrained into us.

Life will lead us in many different directions and take us on unexpected journeys. However, no matter where we go we will always remember the place where it all began and the people who pushed us in the direction of our future.

There truly is no place like home.

Draw the Curtains

The Stoughton High School drama department took over the stage with its production of "It's A Wonderful Life" in the fall of 2013.

The students involved in the production dedicated countless hours and practices to make the play a huge success. From costume design to lighting management in the pit, the entire crew was immersed in preparation until opening night.

Megan DiSimone, the director of the play, along with the entire staff, deserve credit for organizing an amazing performance.

Congratulations on a job well done!

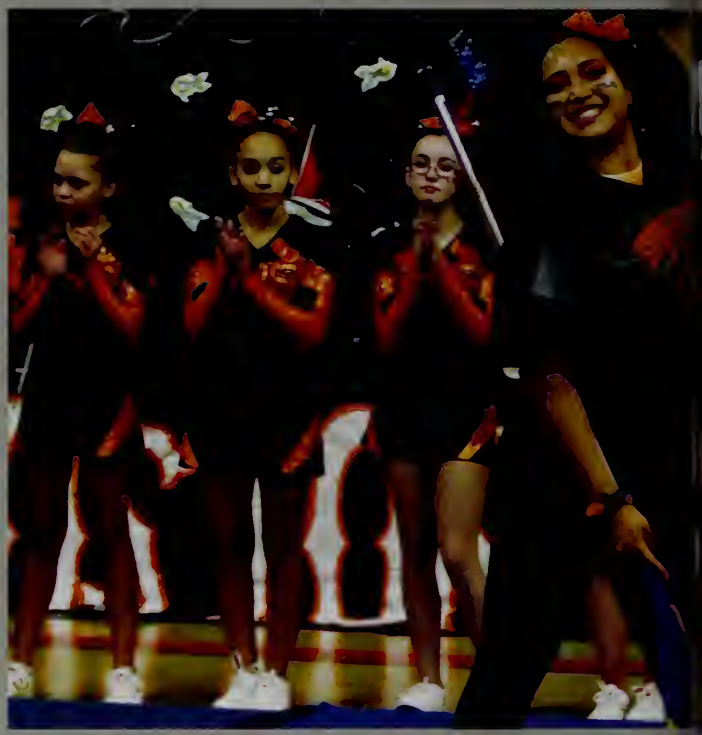
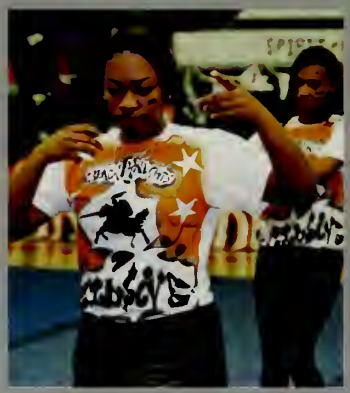
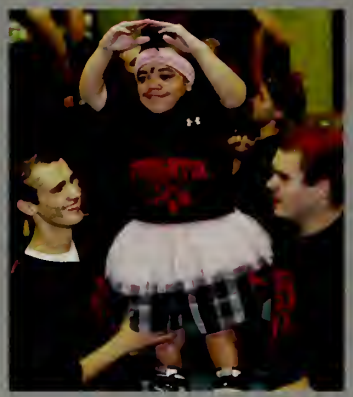
2013 Stoughton

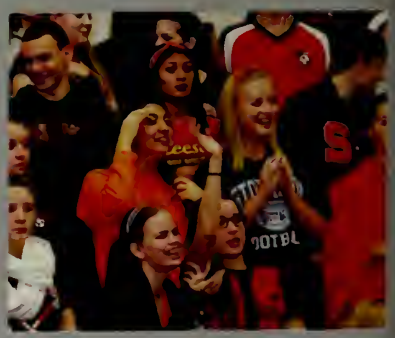






Our principal, Ms. Miller, gives a unique and motivational speech to inspire students to have school spirit.

The Stoughton High marching band pumps up the crowd with their performance.

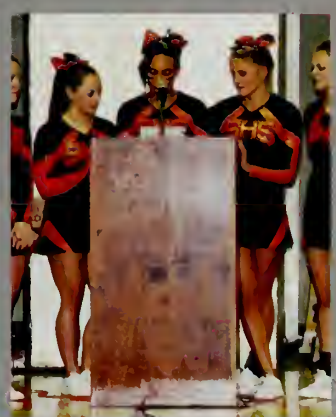


High Pep Rally

The powderpuff boys show off their dance moves in mini skirts to entertain the SHS community. The sight of the senior boys executing a cheer routine is always a crowd pleaser.

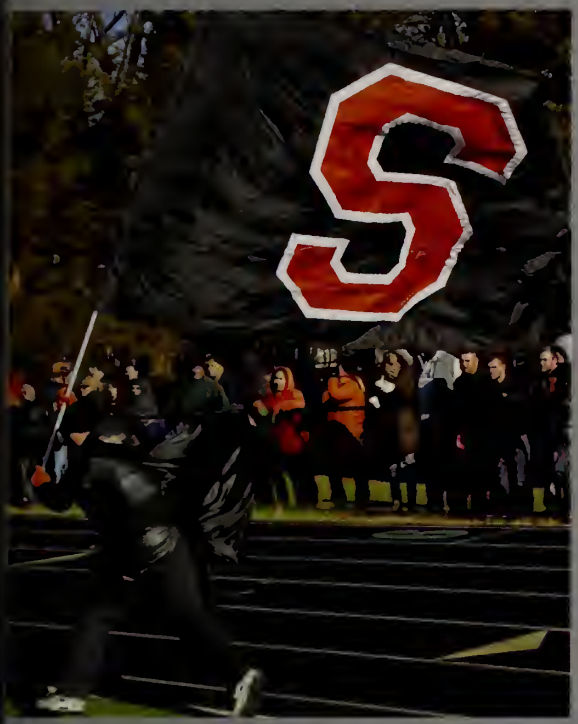
The class of 2014 shows their school spirit as they cheer for the football team at the annual pep rally.

The senior football players await recognition by Coach Burke for their four years of hard work and dedication.



Thanksgiving

Tradition



The Stoughton High School Black Knights played a tough game against the Canton Bulldogs in the 88th annual Thanksgiving Day Game. Down at halftime, the team rallied to earn a 28-20 win over the Bulldogs, returning the Thanksgiving Game trophy back to Stoughton High School. This game set the Black Knights record at 10-2, making them the first team in Stoughton football history to win 10 games in one season. Along with their successful season, the Black Knights became the South Sectional Final Champs. As far as the all-time Thanksgiving series goes, Stoughton still leads with a record of 44-40-4.Great season, Black Knights!

Stoughton's Most Fashionable

Boots have taken over the halls of SHS. From black to brown, short or tall, girls' new favorite shoes add a stylish touch to any outfit.

Watches are the perfect accessory for teachers and students alike to maintain a classy and professional image while also looking fashionable.

Army green cargo jackets layered over long sweaters keeps students warm and looking modern.

While scarves have been in style for many years now, infinity carves are the new craze. They make any plain outfit exciting.

Both boys and girls find comfort in flannels. They are both trendy and comfortable to wear in school or just when hanging out with friends.

SHS Annual

Dodge Dynasty, a team composed of all seniors, celebrate their victory before moving onto the next round.

Dodgeball Tournament

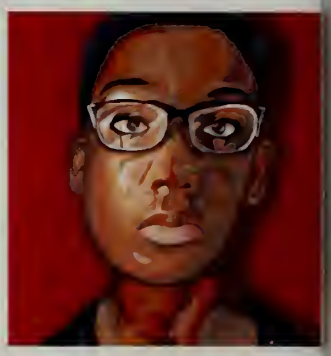
Underclassmen Jordan Taylor and Sam Tullis prepare for their next move in an attempt to stay in the tournament.

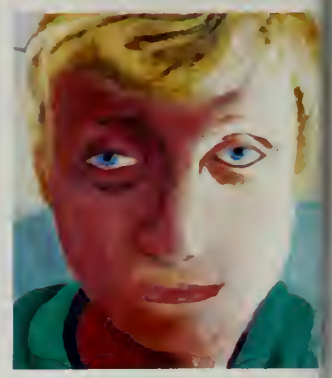
Visual Arts

Jasmine Rogers uses light in a unique way to convey the obscurity of a lost soul.

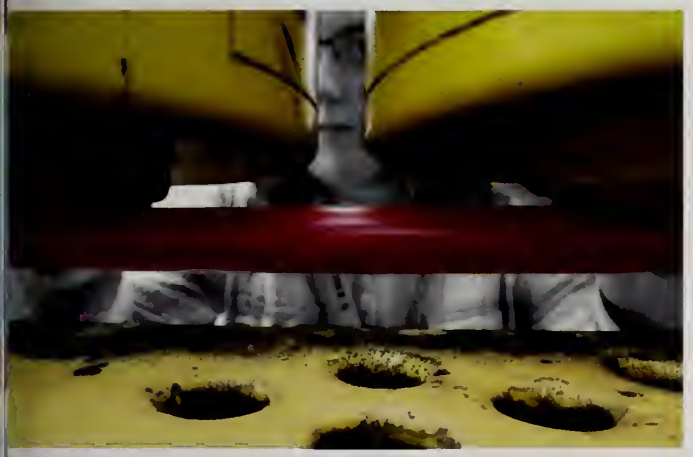
Johannah Smith contrasts the faces of two different races in her photograph in order to portray that humans can find connections and stand together despite races and differences.

Chris Phelimond's photography talent shines through in this photograph depicting how an individual's inner light can be drawn out by the world around him.





Jessica Cohen used a long exposure and a spinning lantern to create this vivid photograph titled "Portal".



Gia Williams displays a striking contrast of color against black and white.

Mia Masone depicts the similarities amongst humans depite differences in her noteworthy mirage.

Herny St. Germain's photograph represents the American Dream and the way it engulfs nearly everyone.

Artifacts of Art

Visual Arts is one of the many successful programs here at Stoughton High School. Students are challenged to explore different ways of expressing themselves with a pencil, paintbrush, camera, or even more.

Alyssa Dancey, Kelly Jarasitis, Mark Craig, and David Wall have set a strong foundation for their students: teaching them techniques and perspectives that will carry them past their years at Stoughton High School. Each student's talent shines through their work whether it is a portrait, painting, or photograph. The love, passion, and dedication of both the staff and students in the Visual Arts department is what makes the program a continuing success. Hidden behind unique and beautiful pieces, are messages that reveal inner beliefs, hopes, dreams, and desires.

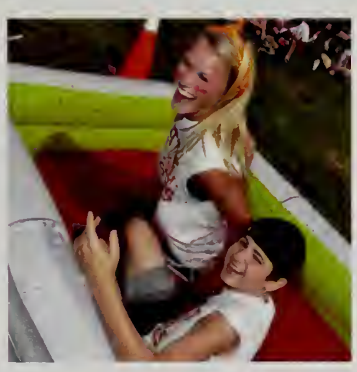
Although these aspects as well as self-identity will change throughout the course of life, the artifacts of art that were created here will remain true reminders of not only one's own life, but life here at Stoughton High School, our home away from home.

Pink Week

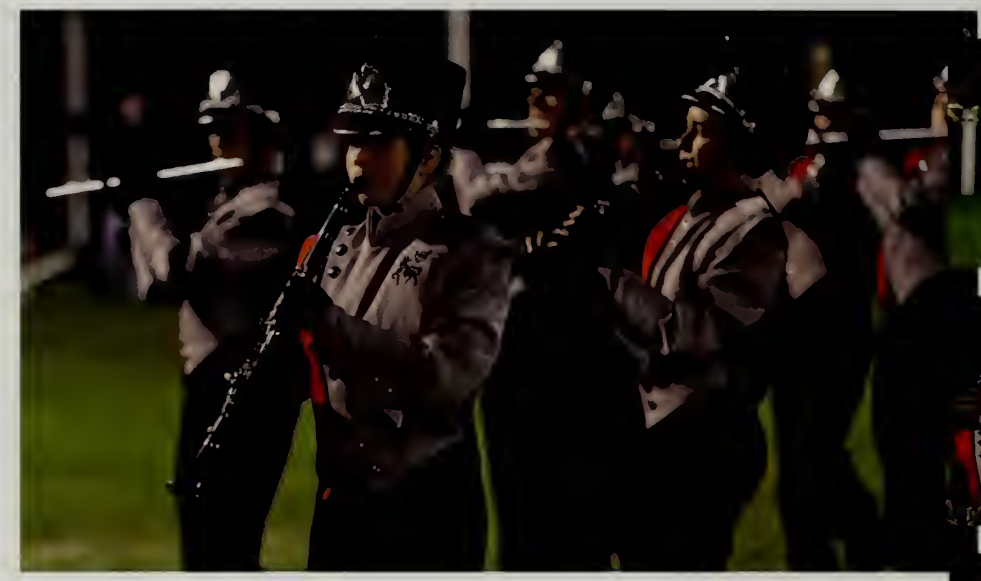
The Walk for Cancer - The volleyball team welcomes in the walkers with big smiles and high fives.

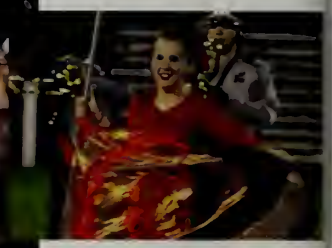
The freshmen football team show their support by completing the walk together before they head off to practice.

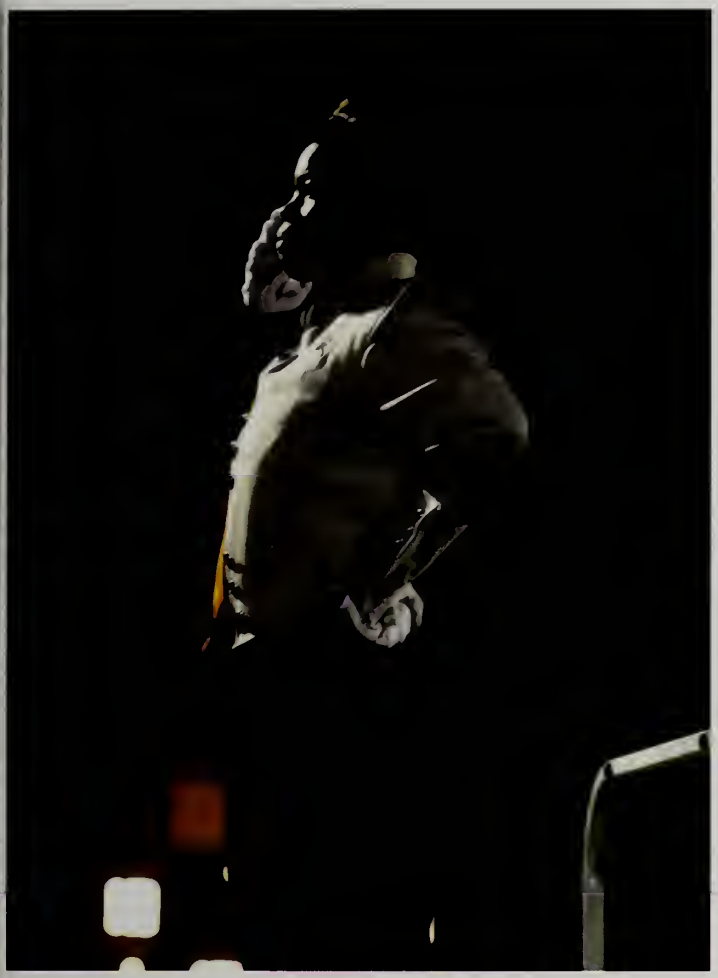
After the volleyball team successfully finished the walk, they stand together before going off to participate in Jello tug-of-war.

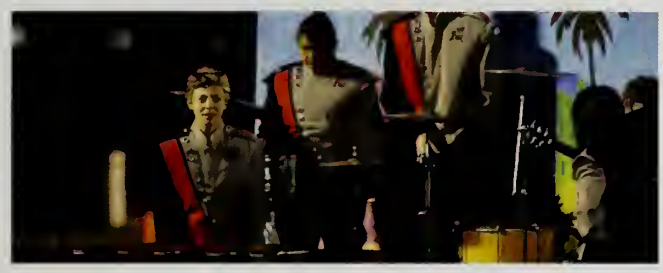


Band & Color Guard









As always, the marching band and color guard had an amazing season this past fall. With an outstanding performance that won the hearts and minds of the audience, the talented group of kids were able to rally up any football game. Undeniable poise, confidence and originality made them a challenge to beat at competitions.

With merit, the band and guard were awarded the platinum medal at the NEBSA Finals. At the same competition, the color guard was given the title 'Best Color Guard'. Their success didn't end there. At the MICCA Finals, the band received a gold medal and a total of four stars!

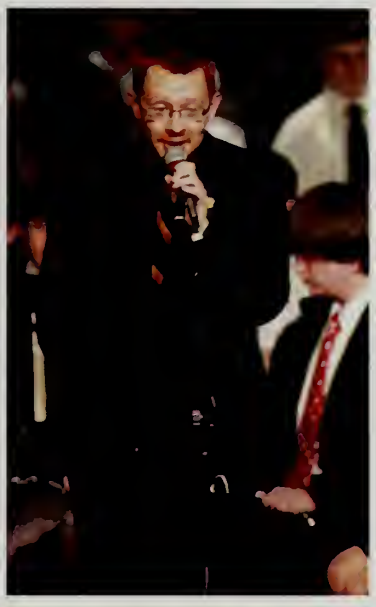
Without the musical spirit of the band and color guard, our school would not be complete. Congratulations on another impressive year!

Band and Chorus

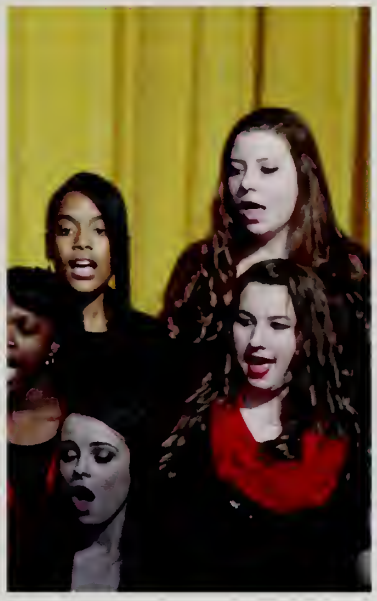
Made up of talented students who love to sing, the chorus puts on a holiday performance the audience will not forget.

Full of spirit and excitement, the band flawlessly performs holiday favorites for the crowd.

Connor Cavanaugh methodically plays the symbols during the concert.



Band director, Mr. John Mange, conducts his band with passion and excitement.



Let The Music Take You Home

The SHS music department has been incredibly successful this year. Having only been with the band two years, band director, Mr. John Mange, led the Jazz band to 7th place at their Berklee competition. Choral director, Mr. Griffin Coombs, took the Jazz choir to 12th place, creating an opportunity to compete in Philadelphia for clinics.

All members of the music department participated in extensive rehearsals during music class as well as dedicating countless hours after school. Their hard work was rewarded and was evident throughout their performances. The band and choral groups continue to amaze their audiences with their beautiful music and outstanding shows.

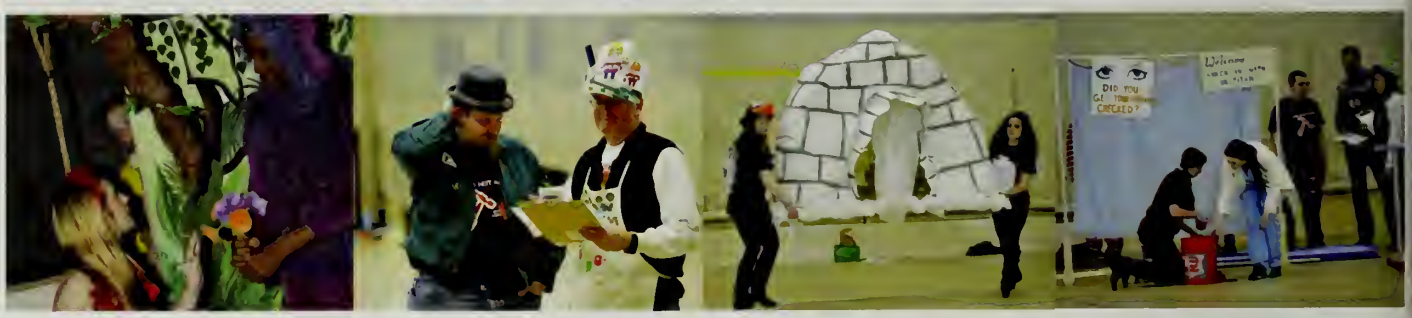
Destination Imagination

Stoughton High School participated in four challenges of the Destination Imagination Competition: Technical, Structural, Scientific and Community Service. After long months of preparation, Stoughton High brought nine teams and more than sixty students to the regional competition at Whitman-Hanson Regional High School. Team REEL won first place in the Structural competition and Team DIesel won first place in the Technical competition. Both teams moved on to the Massachusetts State competition at Worcester Polytech Institute.

Team REEL, with Sarah Purcell, Beth Sloane, Jenna Morris, David Bunce-Grenon, Dylan Freitas, Leslie Camilo and Nick Quattrucci, won second place in the state for the Structural competition and was awarded a prestigious Renaissance Award for the intricacy of their performance as a whole. Team DIesel, with Amanda Glickman, Emma Sinkus, Hunter Goodrich, Deana Sanford, Katie Cellucci, Sam Tullis and Guy Eddy, won first place in the state for the Technical competition and was also awarded a Renaissance Award for the technical design and innovation of their hover craft.

Both teams moved on to represent Massachusetts at the DI Global Finals in Knoxville, Tennessee.



2014 Class Officers

A journey may not always be easy, but it is undoubtedly an adventure. Our four years at Stoughton High School have been both memorable and insightful. It seems like only yesterday that we were the small fish in the big pond. Today, we are preparing to leave with all the wisdom and lessons we have acquired.

We want to thank all the teachers and faculty that have helped us along the way. A special thank you to Mr. Norman for getting us through this crazy senior year. We could not have done it without you!

Graduating from high school seemed so far away. But now here we are, getting ready to spread our wings and fly. As we experience new adventures, we will never forget where we came from. Our home, Stoughton High School.
